Investigator Elizabeth Watson demonstrates Doncaster Council “Playing Shadow Court” Two Court Days to Return Vicky Haigh’s Daughter and Not to Commit Ms Watson to Prison

Christopher Booker has covered extensively in The Telegraph how Vicky Haigh lost her daughter to her paedophile father and had to flee to Ireland to keep her baby from being snatched by Nottinghamshire Council¹. The fact finding was due to Elizabeth Watson² who operates as an investigative consultant and wrote an extensive chronology. Because of a supposed gagging order an anonymised version was published as My Daddy is a Paedophile³.

The alleged gag was issued by Doncaster Council rather than any Court, in different versions, with the number of defendants varying and whether “The Media” were included, stamped on 26th Feb 2011 - a Saturday. It was confirmed that Justice Baker was not sitting on the date claimed. Also, HMCJ Court Manager Joseph Risk confirmed in two letters⁴ “There are no committal proceedings pending at the Principal Registry” and that the Registry “has no ongoing proceedings to which you are a party,” besides other details.

Notwithstanding this evidence of creating a “make believe court system”, lawyers on behalf of DBMC have issued a position statement claiming that Vicky Haigh pays both Ms Watson as well as independent web publisher Sabine K McNeill⁵ £300 per month – in a document that is not to be disclosed without leave of the court. However, the need to lift the Secrecy in Family Courts has been demonstrated by an online petition⁶ that has attracted over 650 signatures and very revealing comments⁷. “Chronic litigant” Maurice J Kirk BVSc sprayed on his veterinary surgery in Guernsey in 1984: The Law is only as good as the integrity of those who are entrusted to administrate it.⁸ It is hoped that Lord Justice Wall will prove integrity on Monday and Tuesday in the Royal Courts of Justice in London.
